Petitions Due For Elections

All students filing for nomination to the various Student council and class offices must have their petitions in to council by noon Friday, Oct. 26 at 205 Union.

Jan McGarr, elections committee chairman, has announced openings for all class offices. Four freshmen and two junior Student council seats are to be filled in the coming elections. Four freshman Men's union positions are open, as well as places for two women to represent Kent State women at large in Women's league. No specification of class is necessary for these two positions. Petitions can be obtained from 202 S. Lincoln, phone 5140.

The date of the elections will be announced following the Council meeting Wednesday. At the same time the group will decide whether there will be separate balloting for the class officers and Council posts or one all-university election.

Announce Homecoming Band

Frankie Masters Is Here November 10th

Frankie Masters and his orchestra will play for the Homecoming dance, Saturday, Nov. 10. The dance band and committees for Homecoming were announced today by Bob Weber, social committee chairman.

Accept Entries For Freshman Queen Contests

Applications are being accepted now by Kappa Sigma fraternity for their second annual Freshman Queen dance to be held this Friday evening in the Union ballroom.

Judging will begin at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the fraternity house, 219 S. Wilcox street. Official will include all fraternity presidents and the presidents of Stephe n hall, Booster club, Men's union and Student council.

Entrants for the all-university dance must be either first, second or third quarter freshmen. Second and third quarter girls must have a 2 point average the previous quarter. Two attendants will be chosen for the queen who will be announced at intermission.

Applicants may clip the application blank from page four of today's Stater and return the completed form to Carl Viviani.

No organization may sponsor more than four girls. Music for the 9 to 12 informal dance will be by Roland Gamble's orchestra. Girls will be given 12:30 permits. Tickets are 50 cents a person.

Dec., March Grad Applications Due

All December and March graduates must have their applications for graduation in the Registrar's office by tomorrow morning.

The statement in last Thursday's Stater listing the deadlines as Nov. 30 was erroneous.

Air ROTC Issues Uniforms, Plans Full Scale Operations

By Norm Hilliker

With the issuing of uniforms to cadets, KSU's Air ROTC unit is ready to start full scale operations. Most of the 331 uniforms were issued to freshmen who are starting on the four-year trail to a reserve commission in the United States Air Force.

At the present time, all the advanced training is directed toward training cadets for administrative posts and logistic work. In two years, when the present freshmen go into advanced work, the program will be split into two parts. These will be the present administrative and logistics branch, and a course of study in flight operation.

This year, first year cadets are studying air science I, world political geography. Air science II, the second year course, is the study of aerodynamics and propulsion. Third year students are studying air operation.

Tentative plans provide for 35 or 40 hours of flight instruction to be given in the senior year to the present freshmen. At that time, the unit intends to take over operation of the Kent State airport.

This week 90 cadets reported for rifle instruction. After two or three weeks of training with the .22 rifle, a team of 20 men will be chosen. This team, along with the Army ROTC team, will compete with teams from other schools.

Every Tuesday and Thursday at noon, the cadets, along with the ground ROTC, have an hour of drill on the commons.

Among the other activities of the group is the formation of chapter of the Arnold society for Air Cadets. This organization is similar to the Army ROTC's Scabbard and Blade. The organization was named for General "Hap" Arnold.

Probable events in the future include a federal inspection in the spring and a part in the annual Military Ball.

Any students or faculty members in the Air Corps reserve who have any questions about their status, etc. are welcome at the unit's office in 205 AB.

Six Weeks Travel Back Geology Talks Tonight

By George Way

"Open meeting of the Kent State Geological society, Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 8 p.m. in 458 McGilvrey at 8 p.m. Color slides of the Western states will be shown."

Just a short notice, a meeting announcement lost in the calendar column on the back page. That's the trouble with meeting announcements; you can't tell just what's behind the type and the brief, impersonal words.

Take the above notice, for instance. I would never have appeared if I hadn't heard the society editor turning the fellow down: "Copy has to be in by 10 for club notices for the following day." "Isn't there some way we can get it in?" he asked pleasantly. "The Society has done a lot of work on this meeting."

Which qualifies as the understatement of the year. But that's typical of the Society's membership. They're quiet boys in general, and rarely get mentioned. When they do, they're often referred to as "rockbusters" or "stonebrows." They take it well.

But they get things done in their quiet way. Organized two-and-a-half years ago, the group grew from half-a-dozen geology majors to a crew of thirty last year, and eyebrows began going up when a few average joes reported to their friends that the "rockbusters" not only knew a lot about "the face of the earth," but they could talk you about it without using six-bit words.

Last May the KSU Geological Society sponsored an all-Ohio college field trip inviting student geologists from about 30 Ohio colleges to go on an all-day trip throughout the area. Instructor Henry H. Gray, the group's adviser, is finding himself hounded with requests to give talks with his collections of color slides on the United States.

And when they get up, as usual, they'll know what they're talking about. For fresh in their minds is a three-car caravan of Society members who spent six weeks this summer seeing and learning their topics on a field trip of the West.

President of the Society this year is Lorie Summers, geology senior from Canal Fulton.

In honor of the Community Chest drive, the University Twin Marching bands combine forces to form a huge "red feather" on the field at half-time. The formation was presented at the Bucknell-Kent State and the Cleveland Browns-Washington Redskins football games.

No Let-Up: Bobcats Are Next
Ohio U May Hold Key To Successful Season

By Joe Durbin

The Golden Flashes have a good chance to end the 1951 season with a record of 7-1-1 if they can get by the powerful Bobcats of Ohio university Saturday at Athens.

The Flashes, however, have had a long season and, with a game this week, they have no time to rest. In their last game against Michigan State, the Flashes were defeated by a score of 21-7. But in the previous game, against Ohio State, the Flashes scored 17-7.

The Flashes have a strong offense, with quarterback Bill Durbin leading the way. Durbin has thrown for 1,200 yards and has scored 12 touchdowns. He is also a good runner, and has gained 500 yards on the ground.

The Flashes have a strong defense, with linebacker Jerry Arafold leading the way. Arafold has 10 sacks on the season, and has forced 10 fumbles.

The Flashes are expected to win this game, but the Bobcats are a tough team and will be difficult to overcome.

Fraternities Piling Up Big Football Scores

Three fraternities scored more than 30 points in four games played last Thursday.

Alpha Phi Beta routed Phi Kappa Tau 38-6; Phi Sigma Kappa overcame Alpha Epsilon Pi 32-6; and Phi Beta Phi rolled over Sigma Delta, 32-19.

In the remaining game, Delta Sigma Pi edged Sigma Alpha Chi, 18-15.

In the tight ballgame, Neil Van-Uum, Bill Ridgeway, and Emyr Emerson scored for the winners, and Jerry Hecker and Morton Emerson tailed for the losers. Sigma Alpha Chi also added a safety.

Dick Barber and Gene Lautin scored two for Alpha Phi Beta, and Bill Fritzsche and Dale Westsrot tallied one. Phi Kappa Tau's lone score was made by Paul Cohn.

Paul Wilson contributed four TDs to the Phi Beta cause while Ed Gebrock added a fourth. Harry Maloof registered two extra points. Two Sigma Delta touchdowns were scored by Dave Hoover, and Joe Celano added the third. Hoover also talled the lone extra point for Sigma Delta.

Three touchdowns by Larry Sessions, two more by Clay Freed and two extra points by Session assisted for the Phi Sigs 32 points, while Al Golub carried the pigskin to pay dirt for AEP.

Distance Runners Win Home Opener

Opening the cross country home season in fine fashion, Captain Bill Hall and his quartet romped home with their first win Saturday—a hard-earned victory over Baldwin Wallace, 26-20.

Their next meet will be against Akron university's meetings Wednesday at 4:30. The victorious KU runners were dispatched in their debut this year by Case Tech 38-44 but their impressive performance Saturday shows that the picture is quite brighter than expected.

Members of the winning team include Captain Hall, Jan MacEwan, Paul Pank, Chuck Finney, and Harry Stewart.

Cleveland Roundtable
Meets Here Tonight

Students and faculty from Western Reserve university, Fenn college, Hiram college, Oberlin college and several other schools will be present, in a dinner and discussion meeting here this evening under the auspices of the Cleveland Roundtable of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Tonight's affair will be the first in a series of monthly meetings on various Ohio college campuses.

A limited number of KSU students and faculty members have been invited to the dinner which will be held at the Wesley foundation house at 6 p.m.

Following the dinner a discussion on democratic living on American college campuses will be held in 202 Union at 7:30 p.m. The meeting, which is open to all faculty and students will include some colored slides on the week-long student conference held by the national conference at Lake Erie college in Painesville.

SMOKER

Tonight's fraternity rush smoker will be held in Sigma Nu, 262 Columbus. Festivities begin at 8.

ACC's Announce Year's Progress

Homecoming decorations for the American Commons club are being placed under the direction of Enie Bakko and his assistant, Jim Kissman.

Mrs. Hal athletic chairman, announces the bowling team is tied for first place in their league. The ACC football team has won a game and lost one.

Completion of house re-decoration and the erection of a new study room was announced by Ed Schiefer.

A magic show and Campus day slides were shown at the open session of the ACC last Wednesday by Don McCarty.

Honorary Will Meet Tonight

Delta Psi Kappa, national honorary fraternity for physical education, held a "cooking out" at the home of Dr. Mrs. Virginia Harvey, on Sunday afternoon at 4:30. Following the outing a short business meeting was held.

The honorary plans to help with the women's physical education section of the Ohio College association's annual fall meeting to be held here Nov. 16 and 17.

Kappa Delta Pi

The active chapter of Kappa Delta Pi is planning a hayride and water-

ers. The new college will be honored at the hayride which will be Oct. 25 from 7 to 10 p.m.

Tickets may be obtained for members and their guests from the committee in charge.

The pledge service will be held

out-of-doors.

Sorority and Blade

Sorority and Blade, IRC honorary, will hold an open smoker for all prospective members tonight in the Military Science building at 7:30 p.m. All second advanced cadets are eligible for membership.

Sigma Delta Holds First House Party

An evening party, "Coomon A My House," was held with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority last Wednesday.

Lou Gerber was MC for the party which featured the new Sigma Delta player piano, dancing, and refreshments.

Homecoming plans now consist of a pre-game reception and a pre-dance open house. According to alumni secretary Jerry Hyman, "many of the alumni will be present for the Homecoming weekend."

Parties since the close of school last June are Dave Inman to Alpha Xi alum Phyllis Horn, Charles Carmody to Alpha Xi Doris Davis, Lou Wagner to Helen Barolski, and Keith Tho

bourny to Alpha Carol Chapman.

UCF-Wesley Hold Retreat

The Wesley foundation and the United Christian fellowship will hold a joint retreat at Centerville YMCA camp near Aurora, this weekend, Oct. 26, 27 and 28.

More than 150 members of the two groups will leave Kent Friday afternoon to spend the weekend together in worship and the fellowship of discussion and recreation.

Two headline resource leaders, Rev. Herbert VanMeter of the Kent Congregational church, and Rev. Clyde Onyett, professor of religion and rural sociology at Mount Union college, will guide the group through thematic discussions on the theme, "How Can My Life Count?" Students and their faculty sponsors will share in their concern about the Christian approach to life, its problems and opportunities.

The group will return to the campus Sunday afternoon. Advance reservations for the retreat may be made with Wally Jacob of Wesley or Beverly Springer of UCF.

German Student Is Coffee Hour Guest

Edzard Obendiek, young Christian student leader from Germany, will be guest speaker at the UCF coffee hour program Wednesdays, at 545 S. Lincoln street.

Mr. Obendiek comes here from Syra Sweat area, where he was a guest for 10 days. He will be here until Nov. 2, then journey on to Miami university.

This young man comes to view university activities and as a response will relate his Christian experiences encountered in extensive youth work.
